Quattrone Center Lunch talk: Erin Kerrison, High Stakes and Quick Judgments: Exploring the Relationship Between Defendants' Reported Social Capital and Plea Agreement Timelines

Time: 12:00pm - 1:15pm

Location: 285 McNeil Building, 3718 Locust Walk

Erin Kerrison, Vice Provost's Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Department of Criminology and QC Research Affiliate, will discuss "High stakes and quick judgments: Exploring the relationship between defendants' reported social capital and plea agreement timelines."

Open to Penn Faculty. Please RSVP to khagans@sas.upenn.edu

Dr. Kerrison will present findings from her ongoing analyses of case file data from San Francisco County. This research is derived from the Racial Bias in Plea Bargaining Study, which is part of a research partnership that the Quattrone Center has established with the San Francisco Public Defender's Office.
